WALK NO 182: Sorry no comments from the walkers this week.

RUN NO 182: After getting told he wasn't allowed any hills, and had to have stops every five minutes – POSH decided to put in 56 false trails, to give the FRB's a little bit of a work out. 'Check it Out' was the too often call heard, and TWO HEADS, WRONG WAY and ROCKS OFF reluctantly obliged. Since no-one was looking for the marks – the lazy hares just stayed at the check out, and called them back after they looked bugged. Down the sewers and through the markets, and off towards the hills we went, with MUDFLAP & TAILLIGHT whinging 'you better have a halt soon'. Some people have no patience at all! Finally we reached the base of the hill, but no-one believed that we would be going up it – until the hare called out 'Ooohnnnn UP!' That only lasted a minute until the FRB's hit the 'Ewe Turn'. Back down again to some colorful language from TWO DOGS that loosely translated said 'we don't like you POSH'. From there it was back towards town around another market, and into a shitty track that was so skinny even LOOKIE NOOKIE would have had to turn side on to fit down. By this stage SLOW WITHDRAWL was leading TWO DOGS & HUMPING down the garden path (literally) and couldn't even find the track he'd help to set. Finally they found the pack so On Home it was. A fantastic run was the cry heard from all. ON ON.

Biggus – are you happy to see me or what?

I was about to ask Rocks Off the same question.

CIRCLE CIRCUS

Well the RA was away at the Vatican, so Mud Flap attempted to step in, while Laceration came in as GM. Two Dogs certainly made an impression on the RA who nearly pissed his pants as she commenced singing the Hash song. As the excitement died down the Circle Circus began with a down down for the Hares - Posh Ewe and Two Turds, who only set a walk Two Turds of the way. Maybe Chicken Rooter should try and make him go the WHOLE WAY. Posh Ewe may as well have stayed in the middle as he and 2IC (of course) had enough charges against them - maybe we should charge the pricks $10 instead of $5 to account for all the down downs they both have. Meanwhile Humping was being a double whammy poofter with two hands on his hips, and Click On decided to get in the spirit of Gay life with him. Unfortunately no sex in the circle this week, only plenty of masturbating - lucky we only have one Wet Spot - aye Matt.

POTW

Well Pedo was only back in country five minutes, and already committed the worse crime possible for a Pilot Hasher. He brought back the new hash T-shirts, but instead of carrying them through as hand luggage he put them through customs, so now they will take another 3 months to get cleared. Pedo, You're a Prick
