NEXT WEEK'S RUN: The road past Phil's Grill (follow the signs) Diak Kali & Brown Eye

LAST WEEK'S RUN REPORT BY THE HARE

TWO DOGS & BABE'S APRIL FOOL'S DAY JOKE

HA HA, APRIL FOOL!!

A stalwart but diminished group gathered at the Kampongbaru International Soccer and Volleyball Stadium for the DH3 April Fool's Hash. Perhaps some thought it all a hoax and didn't think that we would actually go through with it. After some confused and aimless checking the hounds finally shook off their sluggishness and "On, On" was the cry with the intrepid walkers trying to be FRB's. Through the scenic suburb past shattered houses, with FRB's forced to follow the fabulous falsies laid by 2DOGS. Walkers took a detour while the rest made a quick circuit around the Comoro roundabout and then on-on through a particularly scenic cornfield guarded by an irate goat, as smelly and ill-mannered as any Hasher. BABE had used his considerable experience (and affinity) with dumb animals to train it to butt errant Hashers (which was everyone).

The cunning trail led to Don Bosco auditorium where the pack, clearly subdued from respect for the great man rather than a result of their own exertions, sedately followed a well-concealed trail. A check halt reunited the group, and then on-on via banana and corn fields. Walkers were again rested from the rigours of a 2DOGS trail, while Glenn decided to explore some new ground all by himself. He alleged that BABE had sent him on a false trail, but really, is that at all believable? Coming from a lawyer for goodness sake!

The religious theme continued up the Stations of the Cross, with a hearty sing-a-long ably led by She of the Dulcet Tones, our very own Songmistress, while the pack enjoyed the sweeping views.

It was then On Down through more ruins and fields to the final Hold Check where walkers and perhaps some others (was CUT OFF seen skulking away?) headed On Home. FRB's took off, unfortunately some along false trails. Being totally slack and without commitment SALSALSA and HAI DROLIK were the ultimate SCB's, cutting in front of the Hares themselves, grinning like Cheshire cats and revelling in their SCB-ness. Shame, you pricks, shame.

On Home came too quick for some; they seemed to be panting for more.

The verdict? Any trail that allows SCRUBBER and BROWN EYE to be the FRB's must have something going for it. On-Outstanding!

TRUTH

Considering the date this was a very good run. Obviously a lot of work went into it and everything more or less worked out as planned. (Especially the local planted to guide SALSALSA & HAI DROLIK off course!)

The trail was a good length and well marked (most of the way) with the locations of the Hold Checks well arranged for the walkers and runners and the falsies working to keep the pack together very successfully.

The variety of terrain was good with a nice use of the hill.

All in all a good effort and fair down downs. Just try to do better next time!

CIRCLE CIRCUS

A small but select band of Hashers assembled by the side of the road at Kampongbaru in Comoro to witness the punishments dispensed without mercy by our closet GM, SCRUBBER. Having been thwarted in his drive for power the previous week, SCRUBBER started off like a whirlwind but lost momentum after the first few charges. It could have been the spectators, who outnumbered the Hashers about two to one, or the fact that he was operating without his abacus. However since another down down only meant another free drink for newly christened TUPPER he might have been trying to save some beer for later.

The quadruple christening of TUPPER, RIGID, PULL IT & PUSH IT was the highlight of the proceedings with a lighter touch being added by TUPPER's locally grown knee pads, which he grudgingly surrendered to the lady for the christening.

On his recent trip back home, TUPPER invited fellow Hasher BROWN EYE to his farm for a few days on his way to Indonesia.

Unknown to TUPPER, BROWN EYE is a bit of a ventriloquist and he decided to have a bit of fun. So he said to TUPPER, "May I speak to your horse?"

TUPPER laughed and said, "The horse can't talk!"

"Sure he does," replied BROWN EYE, and proceeded to talk to the horse. "Hello Mr Horse, how are things on the paddock today?" BROWN EYE threw his voice and said, "Oh, I am having a lovely day. I have been galloping all about, giving children rides and having a great time!"

TUPPER looked astonished and exclaimed, "The horse talked!"

BROWN EYE continued his illusion and asked if he could speak to the cow.

TUPPER laughed again and said, "The cow can't talk!"

"Sure he does," replied BROWN EYE and proceeded to talk to the cow. "Hello Mrs. Cow, how are things in the field today?" He threw his voice again and said, "I'm having a wonderful day in the field. I have been eating this beautiful green grass all day and later I will be getting milked. It has been a fine day."

TUPPER again looked astonished and exclaimed, "The cow talked!"

BROWN EYE decided to push his luck one more time and said, "TUPPER, can I talk to your sheep?"

TUPPER suddenly became alarmed and flustered and cried, "No, you can't talk to sheep. The sheep lie!"
