RUN NO. 66 REPORT – LACERATION, PERSPIRATION & LIZZIE'S SANTANA SAUNTER

Venue - the not so tropical Oasis.

The "Independence Day" run/walk was set by the Yanks: FLIRTATION and LACERATION, and supposedly PERSPIRATION, but she really just provided moral support to her family from her perch on the front porch of their residence. The venue was chosen for the varied, beautiful terrain, just like that of the Americas, - "sea to shining sea" but as it turned out, the hills were burnt and the traffic bad, just like the urban-suburbia of their native land.

The runners were directed down the road, away from the eventual objective, to give the runners chance to struggle the short way up to the nearby hilltop. They then detoured through a 'quaint village' along the base of the ridge following ample flour trail marks. However the flour disappeared as they approached the critical sign directing them up the hill 'any way you like' and so they began running round like the headless variety of the animals they were disturbing. Fortunately the chief Hare had advised one of their number on the location of the sign and so they were eventually led On Up by the sound of the newly (self) appointed Hash Horn, E-JAC.

The option to come up the hill 'any way you like' was given because of the American way of independent thinking which is ~~very~~ difficult impossible (Ed's correction) for most Hashers.

While the runners were wandering around through the village, the walkers were led by the speed of Charlie (Mr Fast Walker). His walking speed was nearly that of a run, and since FLIRTATION was a hare, she didn't mark the walking path well, thinking that she would be at the head of the group leading the way, therefore Charlie (Mr Fast Walker) made her work much harder than she would have liked on the walk.

The walkers eventually reached the top of the hill, and HC1, slightly before the runners, the view was spectacular and we were lead in a rousing "God Bless America" by PERSPIRATION, but she seemed to be the only one who knew the words.

So, after the circle, it was On On down the steep and narrow path. There were a lot of short cutting bastards on that little sidetrack of the hill and they all paid for it later in the Hash Circle.

The walkers went down the hill slightly after the runners and meandered through the trail to find HC2. The runners had a bit of a hard time finding the trail in the river bed due to some damn pigs eating the flour markers, the extra trail marks which the Hares had laid but later abandoned and the Hash Horn being so far back in the pack. But after LACERATION went to check on them and give some quick guidance we were all together for HC2. This time, a bit of gibberish was sung by FLIRTATION to get the group roused up, since at run 65 PERSPIRATION messed up the words (?) to the gibberish song.

The last segment of the walk was rather pleasant, a shady and cool stroll through a poorly marked village, after asking some locals for help to find the way to the beach, and a rather upset dog, we found our way to the beach road and were On Home.

The runners had a long, flat, and sunny last segment that allowed them to stretch their legs and get out any speed and energy that they had left. Particularly Newbie Alan who was followed home by WEE WILLIE and SEXON in tandem with ROUGH RIDER not far behind, as though it were a race?!

The runners just caught up with the walkers as they were nearing home, and we all ended up back at the Oasis fairly close together. Although it was later decided that a key for the beer should be kept with a runner so that we don't have to wait for AS and WHOLE if they decide to have another easy walk.

SEXON was soooo thirsty that she conned WEE WILLIE in purchasing a soft drink at the Oasis while they waited for the BEERMASTERS to show up.

CIRCLE CIRCUS

Again impressive numbers. In anticipation of an ATION run sandwiched between the sea and the hills or just coincidence?

For those struggling to avoid the 'No Hash Gear' down down each week, the good news is that new T shirts will (relatively) soon be here.

The down down honours were fairly evenly shared as the charges and counter-charges came thick and fast in marked contrast to the last few weeks. However the Hare ATIONs and their close relative EJACUL had a significant impact on the evenings for beer consumption and Alan was given a baptism of fire with his reward for being an outstanding FRB.

It was also good to see that some of the more reluctant contributors were making up for their previous shyness but the Beermasters had better watch the quantities dispensed or SCRUBBER will be making another announcement about the weekly fees.

Two namings further livened up proceedings as it was debated which was the most appropriate ATION for Lizzie to become and then a rather illogical association of ideas resulted in a less than flattering footprint for Martin.

The POTW award became a somewhat more democratic process than originally intended when the last week's holder's choice was passed over in favour of a rather obscure misdemeanour. However the recipient was assisted by her Dad – which was very touching!

Another sad farewell, this week as we said goodbye to our legal expert OH PIN YON. It was also the last week for another DH3 regular and our previous Hash Horn, UPCHUCK. Unfortunately he couldn't make it for his final run. Best wishes to you both wherever you Hash in future.
