RUN NO. 74 REPORT – SCRUBBER, SEXON & WEE WILLIE's 'SEEMS LONGER THAN IT REALLY IS' RUN

Arriving at the designated starting point at the Governors Palace on the road to Dare, judging by the number of heads I thought one of the polling booths was still going from the recent election that had been overlooked OR there were some late finishers from the wedding that was held the night before OR, worse still, the word had got around that there was free piss.

Later we were to find out that it was the biggest turnout (62 starters) since Hash has been established in Dili, East Timor...well done keep up the great support. Believe me, every man, woman and dog was there.

Just before we had to shut the gates WEE WILLIE, leading the runners gave the usual dribble about no water, no hills, ON Flour and that SCRUBBER would look after the walkers. For those who were listening SEXON added that there were also Rusty paint markings for the trail etc.

Finally, the call came ON ON and out the gate, down the road back to Dili. For those that had Police radios or were up with the latest info, the truck that had taken a wrong turn the day before was pointed out as it lay on its side high above on the hill slope above the pack.

100 metres from the starting point RAMROD, BALD EAGLE, HAI DROLIK, and others saw a hill and decided to climb it which obviously turned out to be a False Trail.

ON BACK and down the road to Dili again where it was noticed that some Hashers actually asked roadside vendors for directions. Some took notice of the advice they received and proceeded on another False Trail, while other genuine Hashers explored and found the True Trail ON up the hill towards the Portuguese Hospital.

On arriving at the entrance to the hospital the runners veered left to the those ever inviting slopes surrounding Dili and the walkers proceeded directly to the hospital for the first Hold check and the pre arranged "Drink Stop".

The only problem was, "Bloody Hell, where was Hash Booze ?" Surely he couldn't get lost within a few hundred yards of the starting point.

Eventually the unmistakable Hash Booze truck was sighted and after some misunderstanding about getting more booze, refreshments were consumed and the scenic view of Dili from the hospital grounds enjoyed by all.

Once again ON ON, with the walkers having a head start on the runners, led through the back tracks and alongside the riverbed of the Portuguese Hospital. PERSPIRATION and PUSHIT actually enjoying the scenic route.

ON ON to the second Hold Check that was held in an open area at the top of the orphanage where the ground was drier than a dead Dingos Donger. A circle was held and a brief rendition of something or other was led by BUSHWANKER.

Then there was that sweet call that all Hashers like to hear ON HOME, the runners took a guided tour of the slopes at the back of the Governors Palace before ascending them while the walkers proceeded along the bitch-of-mine all the way back to HOME.

Overall a well planned and enjoyable run by the Hares which was endorsed by the pack - until the circle was held.

ON ON

Sexon & Wee Willie lead the runners

... and Scrubber leads the walkers!

CIRCLE CIRCUS

CD of photos from Hash Runs 56 to 74 available from Haidrolik.

The records keep tumbling. A huge 62 member turn out last week and only nine of them on their first run. What makes them all keep coming back? Must be the great company.

Aware of the potential for a prolonged Circle, the GM kept the charges to a minimum and so there should be room on this page for a longer joke this week. However my reserves are getting a bit low so a few select offerings would be appreciated.

Unlike last week when Jayne hogged the down downs, this week the honours were very evenly shared. The GM even gave a free drink to all the ladies, so that they didn't feel left out of the proceeding, thereby ensuring that there were very few left out of the prizes entirely.

Jayne, Bill, Alan and Fatima received real names despite not all achieving their five runs yet.

Sadly we had to say farewell to three stalwarts, RIGID, HOT LIPS and SHORT ORGAN. Keep up the good work lads and keep Hashing.

The POTW was shared between two very deserving nominees. In fact, their sins were so bad that the usual free drinks for the winners when seen out in Dili, was reversed and actually honoured on at least one occasion.

Our new T shirts have been ordered and delivery is imminent.

We are planning a run in Baucau on 21 October. We will leave Dili at about 9.00 am and make a day of it with a beach BBQ so watch this space for details.

The better looking side of Hash (with one exception).

A man was getting ready for work when his wife said, "What's the matter with you? You look terrible." The man said that he felt great. However, when the man walked into work his boss took one look at him and said, "What's wrong with you? You look terrible" The man replied that there was nothing wrong with him and that he felt great. It wasn't until after lunch when a client told him the same thing, that he decided he'd better go to the doctor. When he arrived, the doctor's receptionist took one look at him and rushed him in to see the medic. "Dear God, you look terrible!" said the quack. What's wrong?" The man explained that everyone was telling him that he looked terrible but that he felt great. "This is very unusual," said the GP.

Perplexed, the doctor got out his medical book and looked up "looks terrible"? After he found that he looked up the subsection "feels great"? 'Aha!' he said, poking his finger at the page. "I found it right here under 'looks terrible, feels great?" "Tell me," said the fellow. "What is it?" "According to my book," said the doc, "you're a pussy!"
