RUN NO. 77 REPORT – PRETENDER AND SCRUBBER'S MISGUIDED DILI TOUR MARATHON

Run 77 was finally here.... And with PRETENDER and SCRUBBER's promise of a flat and cultural run....

The weather was cool, most hounds were keen, despite the bloodie eye three musketeers BUSHWANKER, CATFISH and RAMROD, and the air was still (except DRIBBLER who was lamenting POGO's departure and generally skulking around).

With the GM, WEE WILLIE away seeking last minute matrimonial guidance, chaos was present with the payments and registration... still the gaggle of hounds kept chirping away far beyond the starting time. A briefing was finally made by the acting GM, LACERATION, and PRETENDER..... and the pack was off!

The hungry running hounds eagerly headed for the beach and the precisely marked trail. The walkers sprung to life like wounded gazelles from the sewing circle and were whipped in the western direction and what was thought initially to be Mecca. A trail of spread flour as guidance. All the packs now were away.

RAMROD keen to show a clean pair of heels early in the run was soon seen fighting pigs in the slop and on a faulty trail... the smell remained throughout the run and new shoes maybe the order next week!!!. The remaining "musketeers" now focused on the task kept the rear under control. An early "check around" sent the pack of suspicious hounds into Kampong Khaos. Bushes were routed out, sheds flattened water wells and tyres searched until after three false trails the call was finally "on on" and deeper in the Kampong!! The Hospital was ahead and despite PHARTA's call for an "on on" several of the wounded hounds attempted to call for assistance and Oxygen (those will remain nameless due to rank and future flight duties).

A further serious check occurred 200 meters from the hospital. HAI DROLIK, keen to continue to display fitness to several new female hounds launched on a serious faulty trail. Alas BUSHWANKER, now starting to have the "two cans" out of the system called, somewhat regrettably, the whole pack down another lengthy false trail. The whinging had started!!

Meantime the walkers were stretching out... keen to return to the form of her youth PERSPIRATION set the example for the pack. NUMATIK had seen this and consequentially eased the pace as a quick diversion was made by SCRUBBER up "Cherry Drain" The navigation of this cultural feature subsequently stretched the pack out and luckily BROWNEYE, and in competition with THREE KNEES, volunteered to hang back to check on the "tails of the walkers".

A precise joining of the packs occurred at the half time entertainment within the East Timorese World Cup squad's pre-qualification match. All hounds joined in with a youthful PERSPIRATION in a short but entertaining version of "Father Ron" for the appreciative crowd. Some minor complaints were fielded at that time from the pack but were easily dismissed with the effort and attention shown by the Hares in marking the trail to date.

Round 2 of the run again tested the skill and cunning of the pack. Regrettably all were at sea at the old markets where surprisingly the old faithfuls HAI DROLIK and BUSHWANKER again fell for the old "falsey" and tired and frustrated the pack. Easily PHARTA with renewed inspiration from a departing DUTCH OVEN correctly identified the trail and the run was now really on. Shortcutters were everywhere and led by the olde faithful who will remain nameless in fear of continuing to mention them.

As a feature of the run, one had to mention the "stand in" horn CATFISH who between farts and burps managed to send some good blasts at appropriate times into the local population. A "fly past" the Kobe Huts brought soft memories of the dulciet tunes of the night before from several hounds who at this stage were starting to see what they thought was homeward leg ... if not double by this time..... but alas BIGHORN in the new shoes quickly directed them on the true continued lengthy run with several "checks" which were missed by several of the over zealous hounds. As true mongrels they failed to return only to leave good old BUSHWANKER and STROKER once again to lead the pack up the garden path and to again a big cross.

"I'm goin' on a piglet hunt ...
Oh no, there's a piglet!"

CIRCLE CIRCUS

A total of sixty five turned out to run and walk this week as our numbers approach that favourite Hash number. The Circle gets bigger and bigger and soon we'll all have to talk like Browneye, who is used to big Circles, to be heard at all.

In the absence of GM Wee Willie, Vice GM. Laceration and RA, Dribbler officiated.

Perspiration topped the down down honours, to further celebrate her birthday, with perennials Browneye, Pretender and Bushwanker, the chameleon Rotator and the departing Dutch Oven not far behind.

No Name received yet another change of name to Rotator and four others received appropriate real names which, we hope, they will wear proudly until the end of their Hashing careers.

There were no less than five strong challenges for POTW with the eventual honour going jointly to Perspiration and the newly re-named Rotator.

Again we sadly farewelled a number of leavers and we wish Dutch Oven, Enema, Wet Dreams and Simon happy hashing wherever the go.

POTW

Despite highly commendable challenges by PRETENDER, BROWNEYE & WHO THE FUCK joint winners this week were ROTATOR for stuffing up proceeding over his naming for three weeks in a row and PERSPIRATION for reaching a milestone in birthdays.

A series of lengthy straights tested the hounds right up to the back door of the Church where a review of the future East Timorese Taxation Department was taken by the runners. The walkers, experiencing a cultural and commercial awakening by the "bean counter" SCRUBBER, continued to pressure the pace through the Dili CBD.

LACERATION, keen for an involvement in this discourse caught up with the pack only as they turned onto the docks and with a strong whiff of not only fish but also the "beer truck" the walkers "on home" had begun.

The runners now under maximum stress of the whining of several hounds, plus the now 6 KM under their "souls" headed through the last of the checks on the edge of the CBD. With the snouts in the air and the walkers in sight the fittest launched for home like a missile.

The skin had been taken off several hounds paws and as a result some of the pack languished home in a mongrel and limping state. Several known attempts were made to hail Dili taxis on the straight home but by this time the stench from some of these hounds was far too great for even those limos.

A safe but exhausted pack returned to the Turismo for a well earned watering and the circle.

It doesn't matter what your style!

A bloke is driving happily along in his car with his girlfriend when he's pulled over by the Police. The police officer approaches him and asks : "Have you been drinking Sir?"

"Why?" asks the man, "Was I all over the road?"

"No" replies the officer, "You were driving splendidly. It was the ugly fat chick in the passenger seat that made me suspicious."

Sheila asked Lucy thoughtfully one day, "What would you do if you caught another woman in bed with your husband?"

"With Ralph?" Sheila thought it over. "Let's see. I'd break her cane, shoot her seeing-eye dog, and call a cab to take her back to the institution she escaped from."

Some days you're the dog; some days you're the hydrant.
