RUN NO. 82 – BROWNEYE'S FAREWELL COMMISERATION AND SCRUBBER'S 60th CELEBRATION RUN

There I was, early as usual, waiting for the pack to arrive at the Hash starting point at the back of Phils' Grill located in Comoro and not a Hashman in sight. Feeling as lonely as a Kings Cross Hooker at midnight in the middle of June as the Taksi drivers tooted their (car) horns as the clouds overhead loomed.

I then had the disastrous thought, SCRUBBER you're at the wrong location, again !! But no I couldn't be, I had set the trail from here that morning with the old stalwart departing Hasher BROWNEYE with a truck load of flour so I wouldn't have to run and also so that even HAI DROLIK and EJACULATION would be able to find the trail. At that moment PULLIT arrived to my relief followed by beermasters FLOSSIE & VEGINA and then the never ending pack (71 starters, a new record) who had been congregating at the front of Phils' Grill.

Then the unthinkable happened the heavens opened up, 69 (that number just cumz to my head) inches fell in 181 (that number also just cumz to my head) seconds, most of the Hashers were wet as shags before the run had started. The magnificent well planned, well laid flour trail was floating down Comoro River into Wetar Strait and worse to come, I had to run.

Finally after deliberating whether the weather was going to improve, the verdict was On On after being briefed by, co- Hare BROWNEYE about the no hills and no water story and, unfortunately, no trail.

On On left down the road that leads to Sylvias Massage Parlour This obviously gave co-Hare SCRUBBER a bit of incentive, as he lead the pack turned right into a building, in through one gate and out the other back onto the road to break up the monotony of Hashers running more than a hundred metres in a straight line. PRETENDER, CATS PISS and EJACULATION appreciated the diversion and accordingly heaped accolades on the Hares for their imaginative initiative.

As the pack continued on past the True Trail which turned right through the Dili Market Gardens Rice Fields the call was "ON BACK". Fortunately co Hare BROWNEYE in his wisdom and Hashperience had also sparingly marked the trail with Orange Florescent Paint so that the pack were able to find their way.

On West towards Comoro River with co-Hare, SCRUBBER taking on the added responsibility with zest of a washed out trail, striding out ahead of the pack like a two year old in the Lightning Stakes. Along the side of the river, under the bridge, to the applause of the local Mining Pit crews, down the steps and along the riverbed towards the beach. Ensuring all Hashers found the True Trail by duly letting fellow Hashers know they were on True Trail by the familiar calling of On On and into the first Hold Check, where the walkers were waiting in delirious anticipation, at the Church which has been under construction for the last two years. Obviously soon to be departing DRIBBLER(KOFF) is Project Manager.

After a quick rendition of Father Abraham, led faultlessly by LACERATION, the runners after some encouragement, decided to try and find True Trail by heading North towards the beach while the walkers crossed the river heading West towards the airport.

HAI DROLIK took up his normal position leading the way with EJACULATION giving the (Hash) Horn a good workout in hot pursuit, PHARTA, MUMBLES and the newlyweds WEE WILLIE and SEXON keeping in touch with the FRB's to display they still had some energy in reserve.

On right across the river the pack arrived at the end of the airport runway, PRETENDER being excited at seeing rain after such a long period lost concentration, again !! and wanted to make mud pies while the pack searched for the trail. Eventually the call came and the pack headed towards the main road then turning right to the delight of the bemused locals.

GOLDEN TRIANGLE and SCOREBOARD running in unison were enjoying the run as they chatted along the way about the previous nights conquests. At the next check point it was discovered that the locals had caught onto the Hash Spirit by spraying some orange paint of their own around.

The Hares show their remorse!

Back on the main road just short of Comoro Airport Roundabout after a Hold Check alongside East Timor Lodge the pack proceeded south through a few vegie gardens where the runners were given the option to follow EJACULATION up to the hills or follow True Trail.

Then there was that sweet call that all Hashers like to hear ON HOME. The pack then swung left alongside the river, over the bridge and into the On Home where the beer was colder than a mother-in-laws-kiss and the pizza, hotter than a RRR movie, kindly provided by departing Hasher BROWNEYE – who has been a keen supporter of hash during his stay in East Timor, thanks for the good times.

A very enjoyable, well planned, well organised run under difficult conditions (to acknowledge SCRUBBER and WEE WILLIE as the first Hashers to achieve the 50 Runs milestone in Dili, East Timor). This was also endorsed by the pack until the circle was held.

On On, Browneye & Scrubber

CIRCLE CIRCUS

As the Sergeant at Arms silenced the deafening sound of a nearby juke box the GM called the elliptical Circle at the back of Phil's Grill to order.

He was surrounded by a record pack of 71 enthusiasts, compared with only 28 on the same weekend one year ago.

Had they come because there was nothing to do at home in the rain? Or was it the lure of another Browneye/Scrubber run. Or perhaps they just wanted to make sure Browneye was really leaving!

Once again it was a lively Circle with the Sgt at Arms having his work cut out to try to keep order. (Keep Ejac in order, that's a laugh.)

Browneye sportingly shared the down down honours with Ejaculation and Perspiration. Another nine Newbies were welcomed and we hope to see much more of them on Sundays.

Scrubber celebrated his sixtieth run since he helped start the club off on 30 April 2000.

The charges from the Circle were frenetic and actually provided better candidates for the POTW than the eventual winner who was picked at random by the GM.

Choir Mistress Perspiration led the pack in a specially worded version of Shiggy Pit to mark the departure of Browneye though one wonders about the choice of the tune for a Kiwi!

Browneye then delighted with his farewell 'speech'. But for all the value he got from his $100 while he was in Dili we all got much more than that from his company at the DH3 and we wish him well and hope we meet again soon.

The Hares generously provided pizzas after the Circle and these were enjoyed by all.

Ingrid becomes SKINFLUTE for reminding the Naming Guru of his other favourite pastime

Keith becomes TUFTY for reminding the Naming Guru of what will happen to him if he continues with his favourite pastimes

POTW this week the GM was in a hurry to get home (again) and so the award was raffled off and LESBEAU lost

Two little kids are in a hospital, lying on stretchers next to each other outside the operating room. The first kid leans over and asks, "What are you in here for?" The second kid says, "I'm in here to get my tonsils out and I'm a little nervous."

The first kid then asks, "What are you in here for?" The second kid says, "A circumcision"

The first kid says, "What are you in here for?" The second kid says, "Whoa, I had that done when I was born. Couldn't walk for a year."

Hash Legend Browneye and friend hold court for the last time at DH3 ... or is it the last time?

Everyone enjoyed the pizzas!

Message to DH3 from Browneye

Thanks for the great sendorf. Great knowing you all.

Have a good Xmas and New Year and those that are still in Dili in 2002 - maybe I will see you later in January.

Who knows

On On Forever

Browneye.

Time's fun when you're having flies.
