NEXT WEEK'S RUN: Pitt & Sherry Office, Fatuhadu DRIBBLER & MARY POPPINS

LAST WEEK'S RUN REPORT BY THE HARE

Although it started from the Division of Labour & Social Services on Caicoli Street, there was absolutely no conciliation nor arbitration about the setting of this run. It was a fair but uncompromising trail, marked appropriately with red paint, shredded paper and the blood and sweat (and tears on the hilly bits) of the Hare RUPIAH and his helpers STEVE & JULIE.

The run started with a nice flat, well-marked trail which meandered through the back streets of Caicoli, with the runners emerging onto Estrada de Balide just behind the walkers, who had taken the direct route, and all arrived nicely together under a shady tree which was HC1.

In anticipation of a more appropriate venue at HC2 it was decided to defer the usual song and the runners were quickly off in eager anticipation of the delights ahead with HORNY in hot pursuit. That is until he realised that the walkers were heading in the opposite direction at which point he decided that diversion was preferable to exertion and promptly joined the pedestrians.

The runners had no trouble negotiating the short, gently incline up to Mascarenhas, especially with the sight of newbie NICKI adding much needed incentive, while the walkers had to struggle up a rough, dry, steep watercourse to get to the same point at HC2. But both groups appreciated the spectacular view of Dili from HC2 which was the perfect venue for PAVAROTTY's last hurrah (or his sixth last hurrah to be precise) where he led us in a spirited version of 'Swing Low'.

Here the trail split with the runners, led by BB, HAIKROLIK and DRIBBLER, unanimously deciding to gain a little more altitude for an even better view of Dili, REEMUS, in particular, appreciated this extra bit of leg stretching and wasn't backward in thanking the Hare later. Meanwhile the walkers meandered through the bush, tracking hard on the narrow downward incline to HC3 and another, almost simultaneous meeting with the leading runners. Here all (that wanted one) were treated to a well earned beer which had been strategically stored in JULIE and STEVE's nearby uma.

From HC3 it was On Home the long way along Estrada de Balide for the runners while the walkers went back the way they had come out, past UN Agency House.

ROADKILL for some reason ran the first leg – he must have believed the Hare's story about the flat, easy trail. However when he got to the HC1 he appeared to be praying or looking for the other kind of Rupiah on the ground. After the walk and the beer he again found the strength to run on the On Home.

The Hare made sure to set a nice easy run since it was the last for FRBs BB and REEMUS and Choirmaster PAVAROTTY, and he felt that they will need their energy when they get back to Australia.

Must have been run of the year because even Scrubber didn't complain.

TRUTH

No room for any TRUTH in the report this week!

CIRCLE CIRCUS

No GM or RA this week so the Circle was very creditably conducted by the Puddlejumpers most prolific runner (and the Dili Hashman with the most runs to his credit) HUBCAP. Why did he only show us what he could do just before he is leaving? With a few additional touches learnt at Hashes foreign, HUBCAP kept the proceeding rolling and even included a Christening. Don became DRIBBLER, and not for his prowess on the soccer field, though that is sure to become his explanation in years to come.

Obviously proud of his new name, DRIBBLER then proceeded to monopolise the down downs to show that he is a worthy successor to the (eventually) departing PAVAROTTY.

As a parting shot the a/GM left us with a quotation from that well known American Hashman Benjamin Franklin, pondering whether it is mere coincidence that there are twenty four hours in a day and twenty four cans in a case of beer.

DOWN DOWNS

Hare RUPIAH & (Helpers) STEVE, JULIE & HAIDROLIK
Newbies Nicki
Sponsors PS, SMOKE SCREEN
Leaning (or supporting the Esky) PAVAROTTY
Pointing DRIBBLER
Littering REEMUS
New Shoes DRIBBLER
Leaving again REEMUS, BB, PAVAROTTY

Charges from the Circle

RUPIAH charged Steve for his new haircut

HAIDROLIK charged RUPIAH for a bonus beer for his wife's birthday.

DRIBBLER charged PAVAROTTY for giving bad directions to a previous run.

Everyone charged PAVAROTTY for gloating.

DRIBBLER charged PAVAROTTY for asking him to take pictures with a camera without instructions – but it turned out to be a throw-away camera with instructions on the box so the charge was REVERSED.

CHRISTENING Don becomes DRIBBLER for having a mouth smaller than the big down down mug.

POTW No presentation this week because SHOWGIRL wasn't present.

A mother-in-law stopped unexpectedly by the recently married couple's house. She rang the doorbell and stepped into the house. She saw her daughter-in-law standing naked by the door. "What are you doing?" she asked. "I'm waiting for my husband to come home from work," the daughter-in-law answered. "But you're naked!" the mother-in-law exclaimed.

"This is my love dress," the daughter-in-law explained. "Love dress? But you're naked!" "My husband loves me to wear this dress! It makes him happy and it makes me happy. I would appreciate it if you would leave because he will be home from work any minute." The mother-in-law was tired of all this romantic talk and left. On the way home she thought about the love dress. When she got home she got undressed, showered, put on her best perfume and waited by the front door. Finally her husband came home. He walked in and saw her standing naked by the door. "What are you doing?" he asked. "This is my love dress." she replied. Husband: "Needs ironing!"
