NEXT WEEK'S RUN: PITT & SHERRY, OFFICE (opposite the Mosque) DRIBBLER ET AL

RUN NO. 52 REPORT –BROWN EYE & WEE WILLIE'S ANZAC DAY CAMPAIGN

As the ANZAC's did 86 years ago the run took us from Tasi Tolu across the beaches to ANZAC COVE. On the salt flats of Anzac Cove the walkers were able to enjoy a brief respite having arrived ahead of the runners – who in the usual way of the military had taken the long way round. PERSPIRATION was noticeable by her absence. In fact she and LACERATION had been seen heading for Liquicia at about 15.50, blithely ignoring other hashers turning right into Tasi Tolu.

The runners then circumnavigated Anzac Cove before starting to climb the heights of the Dardanelles to LONE PINE.

Once again the walkers had succeeded in beating the FRB's to this Hash Hold. PERSPIRATION and LACERATION with visitor Graeme Welsh had suddenly appeared behind the walkers after receiving divine inspiration in seeing the spot where the Pope had addressed the assembled throng in 1989.

At Lone Pine, fittingly looking down on the Aussie Logistics Depot PERSPIRATION inspired the modern day ANZACs (A & NZ Hashers) to perform a verse or two of their respective National Anthems. The Kiwi's were straight off the blocks with theirs in their mother tongue but the Aussies were not so forthcoming until TUPPA started them off. Unfortunately they remembered the words better than they did the tune but it's the thought that counts!

A scramble down the rocks of Lone Pine; the trail led past the village and across the road to scale the final objective of CHUNUK BAIR. The walkers, as the Poms did 86 years ago stayed low and let the mad colonists of various persuasions achieve the final objective and Hash Hold.

It was then ON Down and ON HOME along the beach to Chez WEE WILLIE.

[ANZAC Day is recognized by Australians and Kiwis as the date when we proved that we no longer needed Old England to keep an eye on us and more importantly not bugger us around by trying to prove that they were better soldiers (apologies to the airmen – but "soldier" is used in the broadest sense) than we colonialists.]

The opinion of the Circle later was that it was a "SHIT" run but then what else could you expect since it's the same every week. The FRB's had good long run; sufficient even to satisfy DIAK KALI, SEXON, HAI DROLIK and DRIBBLER – and the walkers a social amble (PUSH IT and Simone along with several Newbies) during which HORNY and LACERATION conducted more business than they usually get through in a week.

Newbies taken note – this is how a run should be laid.

CIRCLE CIRCUS

A very large turn out, reflecting the efforts of the Hares in spreading the ANZAC Day message throughout the community. Fortunately it wasn't raining because the large numbers would have been a little too cosy under the covered area of WEE WILLIE & SEXON's house.

But the large numbers did ensure that there were plenty of punishments to be meted out by our GM. We haven't him smile (or smirk) so much in a long time.

DRIBBLER had a relatively quiet Circle and even BROWN EYE wilted after a his usual fast start. Newbie FOXHOUND didn't go away thirsty, RANDY kept the Circle waiting on too many occasions (No Hash Gear!!) and SEXON showed that she hadn't returned to Dili just for the run.

Our own GM, DIK KALI, was the eventual and popular POTW winner for causing unnecessary stress to another Hasher. He didn't make the same mistake this week and the last few seconds of fading daylight were just enough for yet another new song from our prolific Choir Master.

To round off the evenings the Hares treated us to a barbie with specially imported snags and the beer cooler was drained for the first time for a long time.

Into a Dublin pub comes Paddy Murphy, looking like he'd just been run over by a train. His arm is in a sling, his nose is broken, his face is cut and bruised and he's walking with a limp.

"What happened to you?" asks Sean, the bartender.

"Jamie McCnough and me had a fight," says Paddy.

"That little bastard, you have something in your hand?"

"That I did," said Paddy, "But although Mrs McCnough's breast is a thing of beauty, 'tis useless in a fight."

"That he did," says Paddy, "a shovel is what he had, and a terrible lickin' he gave me with it."

"Well," says Sean, "you should have defended yourself, didn't you have something in your hand?"

"That I did," said Paddy, "But although Mrs McCnough's breast is a thing of beauty, 'tis useless in a fight."

Why don't you ever see the headline "Psychic Wins Lottery"?
