RUN NO. 80 – PRETENDER & LACERATION's 'LAWRENCE OF ARABIA' RUN

Run 80?? ... the commemorative "Lawrence of Arabia run" on the foreshores of Lake Dili was greeted sympathetically by the Gods with cool, calm weather. The Hares had completed another remarkable course under trying conditions earlier in the day and greeted the hounds in appropriate traditional dress ROTATOR playing the part of "Omar Shariff" while always in focus was LACERATION keenly representing Peter O'Toole in this afternoon delight.

The start was blessed with the return of the Lovers, WEE WILLIE and SEXON from the nuptials on the adjacent colony of Bali.

Due to the fact the Hares were delayed due to TV and press appearances, the commencement of the run was nowhere near the start of the course. This sent confusion into the pack from the start and subsequently nearly destroyed BROWNEYE, who while chatting gleefully to a new young "hasher", inadvertently headed off with the runners as opposed to the walkers. Monday was therefore not a good day for the young Hasher!

BUSHWANKER, out to impress with his final run, successfully sent the pack into an Oasis of thorns before HAI DROLIK, ever alert, called the hounds to order and headed for the hills. The walkers under careful control of LACERATION, somewhat reserved due to the absence of PERSPIRATION on Navel Duties with HORNY, eased a gentle but firm pace around the foreshores of Lake Dili.

EJACULATION, with mounted horn, ably herded the pack through several skilful check backs before the track eased its way up a gentle slope to the first scenic Hold Check.

BROWNEYE, being a legend of Hash short cuts managed to beat even the Hares to the first halt for air. In the distance could be seen the puffs of dust from the trudging walkers, who, with snouts in the air, sought the coastal breezes.

The runners tumbled down the hill with HARI DONUT attempting to create havoc by issuing several false and misleading calls. It was then "On On" to the salt plains where the "fly boys", with excellent navigational skills successfully led several hounds in the exact opposite direction to the trail ... while Omar "ROTATOR Shariff", out to impress with his knowledge of the trail, sent the leading runners up the wrong path and it was only out of generosity that PRETENDER called EJACULATION to task and headed into the Coastal Rotunda for greetings with the walkers ... a quick but cheerful song by BUSHWANKER and both packs were off again on the chase.

The runners trail meandered through the Bangladesh kindergarten sand pit with little clear sightings of trail markings as LACERATION later admitted it was difficult to drive the TATA through the area to set the trail ... however for some olde timers like EJACULATION and HAI DROLIK the sand mounds brought back glimpses of Tobruk beaches. Fortunately HARI DONUT found the correct path and, despite embedding himself in some "banger bog", led the pack towards the lake.

The walkers now fully stretched and nimble, headed west-southeast and then through the lake peninsula ably led by NUMATIK who seemed at home with the cool coastal desert conditions.

Back with the runners however, some initial checks of trails up adjacent hills proved inconclusive, and BROWNEYE, now eyeing the desert mirage floating over the lake bed, caught sight of the "On Down" and FLOSSIE pouring the first of the drinks and headed across the salt plain on the more direct root.

The hounds were spread wide across the plain seeking the last of the skilfully placed trails. Tempers were warming as the stress of the run and its pace stretched the cunning athletes to their greatest endeavours. Then, as the gentle dulcet tones of the walkers could be heard and with the setting sun both packs limped into the Circle keen to quaff some well-earned refreshment.

On On, PRETENDER

CIRCLE CIRCUS

This was a welcome back for our newly-wed GM and his bride and so the venue was just across the road from their palatial, beachside, honeymoon villa.

The setting resembled a cross between a Bedouin camp and the Bonneville Salt Flats and the assembled horde included several shifty looking, tea-towel clad middle-eastern gentlemen.

But we weren't fooled for long. As soon as the Arafat look-alike opened his mouth we knew that underneath the realistic disguise was our PRETENDER.

To honour the occasion (and to prove a point) the GM demonstrated how the Haka should be performed without once referring to the prompts on BROWNEYE's T shirt.

And that wasn't the end of the cabaret.
