Who the Fuck & Bullshit

RUN NO. 84 (2 DEC 2001) – WATER RAT & HARDARSE's PUDDLEJUMPERS' SPECIAL

[Ed: This report is about as factual as the filename which was "Hash Report 1st Dec 2001"!]

Executive Summary

They came, we ran, it rained, they whinged, it was great, they went away.

Detailed Run Report

The run commenced from the humble abode of Hard Arse and Water Rat. It was introduced as short, flat run with one or two false trails. (It was flat at least).

Motivated by this knowledge the pack set off with all the enthusiasm of an unbridled virgin. Helped by the fact that most of the 13 or so new boots were leading the pack.

This virginal pack proceeded east and missed the first 3 false trails. Alas, renowned FRBs, SCRUBBER and HAIDROLIK, couldn't keep up (complained of being "under the whether" whatever that means. I mean why would you, unless you were a Kiwi?). Nor could that sad and sorry looking DRIBBLER keep up on his last run in Dili (but that was most likely an outcome of the previous evening at P&S).

Anyway, the Hare (WATER RAT) becoming quickly cognisant of the inexperience of the Pack in following a marked trail, and of the trouble some of the more senior Hashers had in keeping up, called numerous "On Back, On Backs".

The trail took the pack through the Comoro Market, much to the delight of the East Timorese, confirming their beliefs that all Malae were "mad dogs or Englishmen".

On On to the beach and to the rendezvous with the walkers. Speaking of Englishmen, all the time the Hare was bewailed by a whinging Pom: "are we there yet?, is the halt soon?, I'm tired?, every time I catch up, the pack takes off", and this from an experience hasher. On finally arriving at the HH we discovered the walkers had got lost. The Hare was not the least bit surprised.

From then on things got interesting, more unmarked false trails, the rain came on cue, mud came from nowhere, and the Pom whinged even more. Finally the Hare pointed the pack towards home, but not before he had indulged in a few more sadistic falsies in the downpour.

The pack would still be running around in circles if the Hare had realised that the FRBs were most "new boots", but by that time he couldn't see that far ahead.

All that was left for the WATER RAT to do was to turn off the rain in time for the Circle.

Less than Detailed Walk Report

[The actual walk report was apparently sent attached to an email from HARDARSE. The email arrived but not the attachment.]

Since the walkers were a bit slow getting from the Circle to the road they avoided the falsie in the first 10 metres of the trail.

They're off! (After a falsie in the first 10 metres!)

This must have confused the Hare, HARDARSE, because, although the walkers reported that she didn't lose the trail this time, she didn't make any of the Hold Check rendezvous either.

Judging by the photos of the walk it was a leisurely affair for all but returnee GOLDEN SHOWER who was too fast to be caught in any of them.

The runners did catch a glimpse of the straggling walkers on their On Home near the Ocean View hotel but since it wasn't the same as the runners On Home they soon parted company again. That is, apart from the FRBs who kept on going when WATER RAT called his thirty fifth On Back.

Though the walkers claimed that they waited for 'ages' at the first Hold Check, later interrogation revealed that they may have reached the Hold Checks in reverse order!

But at least they got wet too!

CIRCLE CIRCUS

Fortunately the pleasant setting of this week's venue wasn't ruined by the rain, since we had it all on the run and there was nothing left for the Circle.

This meant that we had a fair number of Charges from the Circle and we were able to catch up on the namings. Good numbers turned out despite the weather and this was helped by the presence of fourteen Newbies. Though only thirteen stepped forward for their down down. Who was the one that got away?

Golden Shower continued from where he left off – straight in for an FRB down down and there were several auspicious zeros including our GM who was making his 60th appearance.

Departing RA, Dribber(kof), edged the down down honours and generally behaved in his inimitable way which will ensure that he will be sadly missed. Best wishes from all of us left behind. Keep up the good name of the DH3 in Moscow.

Our Naming Guru was in fine form with no less than four subjects (though Tim was up by default since he put the wrong run number in the book!) He had no trouble with three of them but his fourth was already taken and it took a while to find an appropriate alternative.

Salsa was finally caught for his many past sins and fittingly awarded the POTW for the first time.

The Hare gets ready for the wet T shirt competition assisted by Rupiah

A blonde pushes her BMW into a gas station. She tells the mechanic, "It died."

After working on the car for only a few minutes it runs nicely and idles smoothly.

The young lady asks, "What's the story?"

The mechanic replies, "Just crap in the carburettor."

After a moments contemplation, the blonde asks, "How often do I have to do that?"

A man inserted an advertisement in the classified: "Wife Wanted." The next day he received a hundred letters. They all said the same thing: "You can have mine."

Man to priest in a confessional: I am 92 years old, have a wonderful wife of 70 years, many children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Yesterday, I picked up two college girls, hitchhiking. We went to a motel, where I had sex with each of them three times.

Priest: Are you sorry for your sins?

Man: What sins?

Priest: What kind of a Catholic are you?

Man: I'm Jewish.

Priest: Why are you telling me all this?

Man: I'm telling everybody.

Our departing RA as we all remember him. On his knees
