Runs 313-314 Omnibus edition (coz I'm still lazy....)

For those of us who have wanted to catch crabs out at Dili Rock, Walk 313 was a golden opportunity. Up the road and back along the rocky coast, complete with scuttling crustaceans, no less than 4 (yes FOUR) times past the beer truck to test the mettle of any hasher, and a with visit to the bleating bibis across the road there was something for everyone, even the honorary Jordanians. Oh, and the runners went up the hill, past Tasi Tolu most of the way to the airport, then had an On Home of about 2km along the main road.

Free-ballin Frank does this every Hash. Am I missing something?

Another important moment was the presentation of the replacement Choirmaster's Dong, imported at great personal and moral threat by Mr Sheen & Corruption. Said device was immediately abused by the Choirmaster, who was heard to utter "I work for a Bank, what's your excuse?"

The Sadistic Countess

BOINK with OINK & the GM

Purple Haze

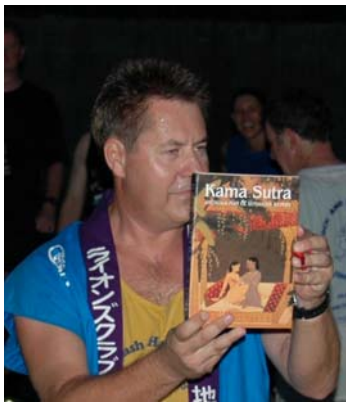

There might be Rats but no roaches on this Hash

Whatever it was, we know they deserved it...

And On On to Run 314, the Stains Hacienda, complete with tractors, manure heaps, and fresh bangers. At the start of the circle, the Run Hare was heard to say "there are a few small hills". Given the surroundings no one was convinced.

The Kuma Satra was set straight about the academic standard and course notes required to achieve a Masters in Hashing. All you need is a towel (available from Shamcock for only $3), the book, and a friend born with at least 2 legs.

Geez, he's at it again...

Benci is named

Tusker

Charges – Run 314

POTW – Scrubber, coz Muflap has the memory of an elephant. (I heard it was something else but that must have just been a rumour)
